

Useful organisations

The following organisations are concerned about particular causes of death and injury on the road.

Belt Up School Kids

BUSK works to improve pupil safety on school transport. It offers support and guidance for parents about safety issues, legislation and the hiring of transport. BUSK also produces educational material for schools and co-ordinates School Transport Safety Week. It can also put bereaved families in touch with families who have also lost a loved one.

Pat Harris, BUSK, 18 Windsor Road, Newport, Gwent, NP19 8NS
Telephone: 01633 274944
Email: beltupschoolkids@hotmail.com

The Campaign Against Drinking and Driving

CADD helps and supports bereaved and injured people who have been affected by drunk drivers. It also educates all drivers - young and old - about the importance of not drinking and driving.

Boston House, Grove Technology Park, Wantage, Oxon, OX12 9FF
Telephone: 0870 744 3003
Email: cadd@scard.org.uk

Learn & Live

Learn & Live works to stop deaths and injuries of young drivers and passengers. It produces free information on safe driving tuition and campaigns for improvement in driver training and licensing. Bereaved parents and siblings can contact others who have suffered the loss of a young driver on the road.

P.O Box 7, Kingswinford, West Midlands, DY6 9QZ
Telephone: 01384 292571
Email: office@learnandlive.org.uk

RoadPeace

RoadPeace is a national charity for bereaved and injured road traffic victims, which provides information and support through its helpline, literature, local groups, and contact with people who have suffered a similar experience.

P.O Box 2579, London, NW10 3PW
Helpline: 020 8964 1021 Open 7 days, 9am - 9pm
Email: info@roadpeace.org

Brake

Brake works to promote road safety through community campaigns including Road Safety Week, educational literature, and through policy and PR. It also provides services for people affected by road crashes, including a helpline, bereavement guides, and training to deliver life saving 2Young2Die road safety workshops to young people.

www.roadsafetyweek.org

P.O Box 548, Huddersfield, HD1 2XZ
Tel: 01484 559909
Email: brakecare@brake.org.uk

Headway Bedford

Situated in Central Bedford, Headway provides a day unit and community based support for the head injured and their carers.

Headway House, Bedford Hospital North Wing, Kimbolton Road, Bedford, MK40 2NU
Tel: 01234 310310
Email: headway@kbnet.co.uk

Road Safety Organisations

You may wish to help promote road safety issues. There are several organisations that do this and that you can consider joining. These organisations also offer advice and support.

You can write to, or call, these organisations to find out more about what they do and to obtain membership details.